VACATIONS AND HOLIDAYS: READ AND RECALL

Last spring, I visited Boumerdes city on a solo business trip. It is a beautiful and clam coastal city that is just 30 minutes far from the capital Algiers.

I only spent 3 days there where the weather was mostly sunny. It was warm in the morning, but cool at night.

The best thing is that the hotel was located near a clean beach. I loved to hit the beach early in the morning or late at night to enjoy the sea breeze or even to practice "earthing" on the golden clean sands.

I have to mention that I liked the city so much and its citizens even more. They were very friendly and helpful.

On my way back, I stopped by Djamaa El Djazair in Algiers where I did my prayer and enjoyed the beauty and the greatness of the place. It was an architectural masterpiece that clearly symbolizes the Algerian firm belonging to Islam.

I wasn't on a vacation as it was a business trip. Still, I enjoyed every part of it.
