

LET'S PRACTICE: (CONVERSATION WITH "SOUAD")

Me: Good morning, Souad. How are you doing?

Souad: Good morning, sir Baba. I am fine. Thank you. And you?

Me: I am fine, too. Thanks.

Me: So Souad ... I am trying to teach my students job vocabulary and I can use your help through this conversation if you don't mind.

Souad: Yes! I will be happy to help.

Me: Thank you so much.

Me: First, what do you do for a living, Souad?

Souad: I am a teacher. I work at high school.

Me: I am a teacher, too. What do you teach?

Souad: I teach Mathematics.

Me: Good for you, Souad.

Me: And do you love your job?

Souad: Sure. I can't live without it.

Me: What do you like the most about your job?

Souad: First, it is one of the glamorous jobs in the world. We get a lot of respect from everyone in the society. I love my students and I love to see them succeed all the time.

Me: Absolutely. This is the spirit that every teacher should have.

Me: And what does your husband Mounir do for a living?

Souad: My husband is a lawyer.

Me: A lawyer!? What does a lawyer do?

Souad: He defends accused people in court.

Me: OK! I see. I know that you have two children Amel and Yacine. What do they want to be when they grow up?

Souad: Yacine wants to be an architect and design beautiful buildings like his uncle Ahmed.

Me: Interesting! And how about Amel? What does she want to be?

Souad: Amel wants to be a doctor. She likes to treat patients at the hospital.

Me: thank you so much Souad. It was pleasure talking to you.

Souad: The pleasure is all mine, sir Baba. Thank you.
