

CONVERSATION IN TEXT (TRANSCRIPT)

Me: Good morning, Mounir. How are you?

Mounir: Good morning, Mr Baba. I am fine.
Thank you. And you?

Me: I am fine, too. Thanks.

Me: So, Mounir -as you know- we are taking these short conversations to help our students.
Are you ok with that?

Mounir: Yes, sure! I know you had similar conversation with my brother, Ahmed last week and he was happy to talk to you. I will be glad to help, too.

Me: Yes, thank you so much. So Mounir ... I know that you are married to your nice wife, Souad. How many children do you have?

Mounir: We have two children. A son, named Yassine and a daughter named Amel.

Me: God bless them. How old are they?

Mounir: Amel is 15 and Yassine is 13 years old.

Me: Ah! They are almost the same age. They get along very well. Am I right?

Mounir: Not all the time unfortunately. You know kids. They fight very often but they still love each other.

Me: Yeah! I see. What are they like? (personalities)

Mounir: Amal is usually polite, calm and very helpful. She is very smart, too.
However, she is a little bit shy and not very sociable.

Me: I see. How about her brother, Yassine? What is he like?

Mounir: Yassine is more sociable and optimistic. He is polite, too, but sometimes, he is not nice to his sister. But he is always respectful to me and to his mom.

Me: Speaking of your wife, Souad. What is she like?

Mounir: Souad is kind and very supportive. However, she is introvert and she doesn't talk too much during big family gatherings. Also, sometimes, she is a little bit strict with the children, but she is never boring at all.

Me: Ok, Mounir. Thank you so much for sharing all this with us today?

Mounir: As I said, sir Baba. It's my pleasure to help.
