

Vocabulary & New Expressions

+ "We made it"

- ⇒ We succeeded in something.
- ⇒ We arrived (on time).
- ⇒ To make → made (Past)
- ☞ Sonia says "we made it" meaning "they arrived on time"
- ☞ She thought they would be late!

+ I am used to it

- ⇒ (to be) used to something means you are familiar with it. It is not something new to you. It is not something you do for the first time, but it is something you have been doing for a very long time before.

- ☞ Gareth says that he is used to it ("He is used to the subway") meaning this is not his first time. He takes the subway every day to work.
- ☞ He also says that "It is very convenient." Meaning it is very suitable and comfortable mean of transport.

+ Spend money =/= Make money

- ⇒ To spend money meaning to use your money on a service or an item you want to buy.
- ☞ Sonia says that she spends a lot of money on Taxi and Uber because she is not used to the subway.
- ☞ Taxis and Ubers are more expensive than the subway.

 Have you heard about ...?

- ⇒ We used this question to ask someone if they know about something new.
- ⇒ In this case, Sonia is asking Gareth if he knows about the new electric scooters.
- ⇒ She asks: "Have you heard about those electric scooters?"

 "So am I" = I am, too.

 "So do I" = I do, too.

- ⇒ Gareth says that he is getting (buying) an electric scooter.
- ⇒ To express that she is getting an electric scooter, too, Sonia responds: "So am I."

 We are allowed to carry them inside the train

- ⇒ (To be) allowed to do something means that you can do it. It is not prohibited by law.
- ⇒ To carry something around means that you can take it with you anywhere you go.
- ⇒ In this case, Gareth is naming the benefits of electric scooters.
- ⇒ The best thing about electric scooters is that they are foldable and we are allowed to carry them inside the train.
- ⇒ This way we can use them after we get off the train. Or we can use them on our way from home to the metro station. Which is very convenient.
