

VOCABULARY NOTES

Flat = Apartment

⇒ "Jacob is looking for a flat to rent."

⊕ Accommodation: A general term refers to any place to live in (i.e.: a house, apartment, studio, ... etc.)

⊕ Rental Agent: Someone who helps you sell, buy, or rent a property in exchange for a fee or commission.

⇒ "Liam is a rental agent who is helping Jacob to find an accommodation to rent under his requirements."

⊕ Fully furnished: It has all the necessary furniture and appliances.

⇒ "Jacob is looking for a fully-furnished apartment."

⊕ Utilities (gas, water, electricity, telephone)

⇒ "Jacob is looking for an apartment at the price of 400$ a month, and he wants it to include some utilities like gas."

☞ he doesn't want to pay the gas bill.

⊕ Beyond means= unaffordable (you can't afford it)

⇒ "Jacob can't afford an apartment at 900$ a month. It is beyond his means"

⊕ Pets (dogs, cats, birds, ... etc.)

⊕ Suitable: It meets your requirement (it has everything you need)

⇒ The apartment where pets are not permitted is not suitable for Jacob because he owns two pets: a cat and a dog.

⊕ The Lease: The contract that both rental parties sing after they agree on all terms. The lease must have defined duration of time (usually 6 month or 1 year)

⇒ "The lease on the current apartment of Jacob is up soon. It's ending soon."

HOME PRACTICE

Task 01: Watch carefully and answer the following questions.

Q01: How many apartments did Jacob visit?

Q02: Why didn't he like the 1st apartment?

Q03: Why didn't he like the 2nd apartment?

Q04: Why didn't he like the 3rd apartment?

Q05: Did he find a suitable apartment eventually?

Q06: Why did he want to move from his current apartment in the first place?

Task 02: In a short paragraph describe your house (or the apartment) including the location (city / countryside), the number of floors, how many rooms, as well as furniture and appliances in each room; concluding with whether you like it or not.
