Friday's Speaking Session

Topic of the Session:
Home Furniture

PART 1:

WARM UP YOUR TONGUE

*"Try to answer the following
"Warm-up" question as profoundly as possible ..
((How was your week?))*

This exercise corrects your pronunciation and improves your reading skills

PART 2:

PRACTICAL REVIEW

"Look at the following pictures and answer the questions asked by the teacher."

This exercise helps you to remember the vocabulary you learnt during the week

POSSIBLE QUESTIONS:

- Could you name all the following pieces of home furniture?
- Are they all necessities that must exist in every house? Which ones are not?
- In which room belongs each piece of furniture?

(e.g.: beds belong in the bedroom)

- Can you name two more pieces of bedroom furniture that do not exist in the following pictures?

If you don't understand the question, ask the teacher to clarify it further!

PART 3: DIRECT CONVERSATION

- ❖ During your conversation with the teacher, you may expect some of the following questions:

1. Refresh my memory, please ... Do you live in a house or an apartment?
2. Which floor? / how many floors?
3. How many rooms are there?
4. Can you tell us a little bit about your bedroom furniture?
5. How about the kitchen?
6. How about the bathroom?
7. What furniture you miss in your house, but you think it's necessary?
8. Are you planning to get these pieces of furniture in the future insha Allah??

It's time to SPEAK freely without fear or hesitation ... You are READY!

PART 4: HOMEWORK (OQ)

Task of the week: Read the following question and answer based on your own opinion. (short answers aren't accepted!!!)

OQ: Is a fully-furnished house necessary to live? Or you can live with the minimum furniture without issues??

Explain and justify your answer!

This homework is to do your research and learn new vocabulary in the process

IMPORTANT NOTES

Any pronunciation error is corrected by the teacher instantly!
